MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP)

The MTCP was officially launched on 7 September 1980 at the Commonwealth Heads of State Meeting in New Delhi to signify Malaysia's commitment to South-South Cooperation, in particular Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC). In line with the spirit of South-South Cooperation, Malaysia through the MTCP shares its development experiences and expertise with other developing countries. The MTCP was first formulated based on the belief that development of a country depends on the quality of its human resources. Annually, more than 100 programmes are offered by more than 79 MTCP Training Institutions, many of which are centre of excellence for training. Since its inception, more than 30,686 participants have undergone various training under the banner of MTCP. MTCP has extended its recipient of countries to 142 developing nations for training within its ten key areas which are essential for a country's development.
